

BLACK TO GOLD

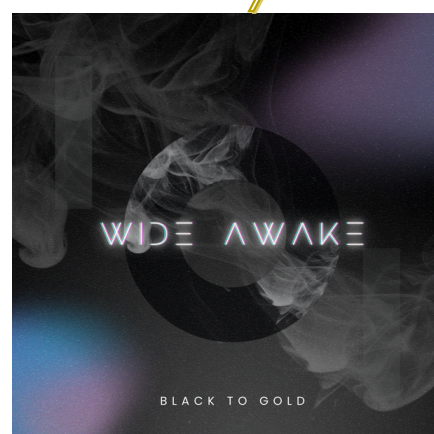

Black to Gold is a six person a cappella supergroup comprised of powerhouse artists and performers, Connor Martin, Courtney Cox, Leah Petraglia, Andrew Orsie, Stefanie Sambrano, and Aldon Knolls. While each member is a killer musician in their own right, Black to Gold is the wonderful blend of these talents into a diverse musical engine far bigger and greater than the sum of its parts. The group enthusiastically tackles complex and smart original arrangements of music, from the classics to modern pop and indie. And the one thing you can always count on is them reinventing it with their unique sound each and every time.
